MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
Department of Higher Education

Hon'ble Prime Minister desires that the 70th Anniversary of Indian Constitution may be celebrated as a one year function starting from 26th November, 2019. This programme is to focus on Fundamental Duties and ensure that every citizen follows them systematically. The main strategy is to run it as a mass movement rather than a government scheme allowing participation of one and all.

In the meeting held by Hon'ble Prime Minister today, apart from what is already planned, the following may be included and taken forwarded by UGC:-

1. Spreading awareness about the Constitution and Fundamental Duties

Every Law college may be asked to identify (10) colleges/high education institutions located nearby and organise talks about the importance of the Indian Constitution and to spread awareness about the Fundamental Duties. UGC may coordinate with all the affiliating Universities to call for a meeting of the law colleges and prepare a detailed programme for this purpose. UGC may also ensure that the programme is properly monitored. Since there are about 1200 law colleges and it is expected that more than 10000 higher educational institutions should be covered under this part of the campaign.

2. Live telecast of the Parliament Session on 26.11.2019 ✓

All the higher educational institutions may be asked to make arrangements for watching that live the programme from the Central Hall of Parliament to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of Indian Constitution. It must be ensured that the programme is seen by as many students as possible, preferably in a central location.

3. Participation of one lakh students in the competitions

UGC has already proposed a date-wise action plan for conducting Debate and Essay Writing competitions at City, State and national level pertaining to Fundamental Duties of the Indian Constitution. It must be ensured that the call for registering for this competition is released on 26.11.2019 and online registration of the students is facilitated. All the Regional Offices of the UGC and AICTE should work together to get atleast 1 lakh student participation in these competitions. Further, there should be a clear timelines alongwith persons responsible for organising these events. The online portal for registration of students may be launched on 26.11.2019.

4. Mock Parliament

All higher education institutions may be asked to conduct Mock Parliament competition in their institutions. The best teams should be identified for giving suitable prizes. UGC is requested to formulate a plan in consultation with M/o ~~Law~~ ^{Patent & copy rights}.

JS(Admn) is requested to coordinate the above activities and ensure successful completion of these events.

Report on the
Celebration of Constitution Day
On 26th Day of November, 2019

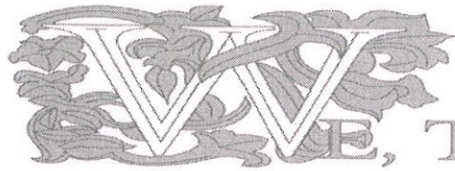

Celebration of Constitution Day

India is governed in terms of the constitution of India, which was adopted by the Constitution Assembly on 26th Day of November 1949 and came into effect on on 26th January, 1950. The Preamble of Indian Constitution records the aims and aspirations of the people of India and reflects the basic spirit of the Constitution. To reinforce the significance and importance of Constitution, the Government of India declared 26th Day of November as 'Constitution Day' on 19th November 2015 by a Gazette notification in remembrance of the architect of Indian Constitution, Bharat Ratna Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar.

Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai celebrated the Constitution Day on 26th Day of November 2019. The event was presided over by Principal Dr. C. G. Yeole. The Celebration started with an oath on preamble taken by the student's faculty and administrative staff Members.

WE, THE PEOPLE

The assembly ground echoed with the words "We the people of India, having solemnly resolved to constitute India into a Sovereign- Socialist- Secular- Democratic- Republic and to secure to all its citizens Justice, Social, Economic and Political; Liberty of thought, Expression belief, Faith and Worship; Equality of status and of Opportunity; and to promote among them Fraternity assuring the Dignity of the individual and the Unity and Integrity of the Nation."

Thereafter live parliamentary session was screened at 11.00 am. The students and faculty Members along with administrative staff participated on this occasion.

To mark the occasion the dignitaries offered a tribute to Bharat Ratna Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, Father of Indian Constitution and the creator of Modern India. Principal Dr. C. G. Yeole elaborated upon the need to preserve fundamental rights and duties as citizen of India. He focused on how the constitution extends dignity to each and every citizen beyond socio-cultural obstacles and therefore it should be upheld as the most important of all documents in a proper democracy.

Prof. K.A. Kajale, R. S. Jayker addressed the gathering and spoke about the relevance of the Constitution of India. The celebration came to an end with a vote of thanks by staff secretary Prof. R. V. Bakare.
