"Geographical Poster Competition"
27 January 2025
Report

A Geographical Poster Competition was organized on occasion of Geography Day on 27 January 2025 at Department of Geography (C-9). The event aimed to encourage students to creatively express geographical concepts through visual representation. Participants created posters on various themes related to geography, demonstrating their artistic and analytical skills.

Aims and Objectives:

- To enhance students' understanding of geographical topics through creative expression.
- To promote awareness of global and environmental issues.
- To develop research and presentation skills in geography.
- To celebrate Geography Day in an engaging and educational manner.

Brief Review on Various Posters: Students showcased diverse geographical themes through their posters, including: Global Warming, Green House Effect, Save Earth, History of Earth, Why Geography Matters, Healing Earth, Save Water, Ancient Geographers, Continental Drift Theory etc.

The participants effectively used colours, infographics, and geographical elements to make their posters informative and visually appealing.

Examiner: The competition was judged by Dr. Subhash Karande, an expert in geography and GIS. The examiner evaluated the posters based on creativity, accuracy, relevance to the theme, and overall presentation.

Result: The winners of the competition were announced based on their creativity and effectiveness in conveying geographical concepts:

- First Prize: Ms. Siddhishi Padasare for the poster on Save Earth.
- Second Prize: Ms. Shruti Kumbhar for the poster on Save Water.
- Third Prize: Sakshi Jadhav for the poster on History of Earth.

A total of 17 students participated in the competition, including 2 males and 15 females.

Output of the Competition:

- Enhanced knowledge and awareness of geographical topics.
- Improved artistic and research skills among students.
- Encouraged creative and analytical thinking in geography.
- Positive feedback from participants and faculty, with a suggestion to organize similar events in the future.

The event successfully met its objectives, making Geography Day a meaningful and educational experience for all participants.
