DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY
Guest Lecture on "Research Methodology"

31st July 2026

Report

The Department of Geography, Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai organized a Guest Lecture on "Research Methodology" on 31st July 2026 at 10:00 a.m. The lecture was organized to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of research methods, scientific inquiry, and the importance of research in Geography. The programme aimed to develop research aptitude and familiarize students with the basic concepts and procedures involved in conducting geographical research.

Objectives

- To introduce students to the fundamentals of research methodology.
- To explain the various stages of the research process.
- To create awareness about research ethics and scientific writing.
- To motivate students towards research-oriented learning in Geography.
- To enhance students' analytical and critical thinking skills.

Brief of the Programme

Session 1: Inaugural Session

The programme commenced with a warm welcome of the resource person and participants. Prof. (Dr.) Vinod Veer, Head, Department of Geography, presided over the programme and highlighted the importance of research methodology in higher education and geographical studies. He encouraged students to develop a scientific approach and actively engage in research activities.

Session 2: Guest Lecture

The resource person, Dr. H. S. Sanap, Head, Department of Geography, Smt. Meenalben Mehta College, Panchgani, delivered an informative and inspiring lecture on Research Methodology. He explained the meaning, objectives, and significance of research in Geography, along with various stages of the research process such as problem identification, formulation of objectives and hypotheses, data collection, sampling techniques, data analysis, interpretation, and report writing.

Dr. Sanap also emphasized the importance of research ethics, the effective use of primary and secondary data, and the application of modern research tools and techniques in geographical studies. He motivated students to undertake quality research and highlighted the scope of research in higher education and competitive examinations.

Session 3: Interactive Session

An interactive discussion followed the lecture, during which students actively participated by asking questions related to research design, dissertation writing, field surveys, and data analysis. The resource person provided practical guidance and clarified students' doubts with relevant examples.

Vote of Thanks

The Vote of Thanks was delivered by Ms. Manasvi Ozardekar, who expressed sincere gratitude to Dr. H. S. Sanap for delivering an enlightening lecture. She also thanked Prof. (Dr.) Vinod Veer, the faculty members, students, and the organizing committee for their valuable support in making the programme successful.

The lecture was attended by 38 students, including 11 male and 27 female students. A total of 05 faculty members attended the programme.

Outcome of the Programme

- Students gained a clear understanding of the fundamentals of research methodology.
- Their knowledge of research design, data collection, and report writing was enhanced.
- Students were motivated to undertake research-based learning in Geography.
- The programme developed scientific thinking and research aptitude among the participants.
