BRIEF REPORT OF PROGRAMME

Today the human world is standing at a crucial juncture in its development. Never before the entire earth's resource have been facing the threat of its depletion. Environment has been studied in a science discipline, however its impact on human beings, societies, communities invites to study or explore from humanities discipline. The study of environmental history has become very important in the 21st century as an interdisciplinary or multidisciplinary research area.

One Day National Webinar (on ZOOM Application & Live Streamed on institutional YouTube Channel KVM, Wai) on 'Gender & Environmental History' was organized by the Department of History, IQAC and Women Empowerment Cell in collaboration with Shivaji University History Conference, Kolhapur on 26th July 2021. Dr. Avanish Patil, (Chairman BOS & Head, Department of History, Shivaji University Kolhapur) was invited as Chief Guest for inauguration. Dr. Mahua Sarkar (Eminent Environmental Historian & Professor, Department of History, Jadavpur University, Kolkata (West Bengal)) was invited to deliver lecture as a Keynote Speaker. Dr. Manisha Rao (Eminent Eco-feminist, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, University of Mumbai, Mumbai) was invited to deliver lecture as a Resource Speaker. At the very outset Mr. B. M. Birajdar, (Convener of the Webinar) welcomed all the dignitaries, invitees, participated students and teachers. Later on he introduced the theme of Webinar to the audience. Due to flood situations in Western Maharashtra especially, Kolhapur, Sangli, Satara districts Dr. Avanish Patil unfortunately could not inaugurate the webinar; he simply joined in a last moment. Therefore, Dr. J. S. Choudhari, Secretary, Janata Shikshan Sanstha, Wai as a Chief Guest of Honour, formally announced the inauguration of the webinar. Then, Guest Speakers were introduced to the audiences by Dr. M. V. Ingawale (Organizing Secretary of the Webinar) & Mr. B. M. Birajdar respectively. Later on Keynote speaker Dr. Mahua Sarkar delivered a wonderful speech on the topic entitled 'Recent Trends in Environmental History' by elaborating definition of environmental history, overview of its historiography, environmental history writings in India by emphasizing role and contributions of women in environmental conservation and movements. Dr. Manisha Rao delivered an insightful lecture with Power-Point Presentation on the topic entitled 'Reviewing Eco-Feminism: A

Socio- Historical Analysis. She narrated with the concept of 'eco-feminism', contributions of women in environmental conservation and movements from global to local level with appropriate video clips especially contributions of Rachael Carlson, Vangari Mathai (Kenyan Green Belt Movement), Chipko Movement, Appiko Movement etc. In her concluding remarks she pointed out emerging research areas within environmental sociology, history by focusing indispensable role of women in natural resource management, domestic responsibilities and role of feminine cultural ethos in ecological equilibrium and restoration. Dr. R. R. Vaidya (I/C Principal) presided over the function. In his presidential speech he elaborated the concept of eco-drama having different roles of men and women in environment and ecology. The webinar has been thrown a fresh insight on different aspects gender and environmental history. Dr. M. V. Ingawale compered the programme. At end of programme, Dr. S. P. Kamble, proposed the vote of thanks. There were more than 130 participats including teachers, researchers and students registered for the webinar.
