DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY
Guest Lecture on "Preparation for University Examination"
8th March 2025
Report

A guest lecture on "Preparation for University Examination" was conducted on 08 March 2025 at Department of Geography (C-9). The event aimed to equip students with effective strategies and techniques to excel in their university exams. The session was attended by students from various disciplines who sought guidance on exam preparation, time management, and stress management.

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide students with structured strategies for effective exam preparation.
- To enhance time management and problem-solving skills.
- To introduce techniques for reducing exam-related stress and anxiety.
- To offer insights into understanding question patterns and answering effectively.

Expert's Talk: The session was conducted by Prof. Vilas Waghmare, a renowned academician with vast experience in student mentorship. The expert covered several key aspects, including:

- Planning and Time Management: Techniques to create a study schedule, prioritize topics, and allocate time efficiently.
- Understanding the Question Paper Pattern: Analysing past papers, identifying important topics, and structuring answers effectively.
- Effective Note-Taking and Revision Strategies: The importance of summarizing key concepts, using mind maps, and practicing with sample questions.
- Stress Management and Confidence Building: Tips on relaxation techniques, positive thinking, and maintaining a balanced study routine.
- Writing Techniques for Scoring High Marks: Structuring answers logically, emphasizing key points, and improving presentation skills.

The session was interactive, with students actively participating and seeking clarification on their concerns related to exam preparation.

The workshop was attended by 31 students, including 18 males and 13 females. Additionally, 5 teachers participated in the workshop.

Output of the Lecture:

- Improved understanding of systematic exam preparation techniques.
- Increased confidence among students in handling university exams.
- Better awareness of time management and stress reduction methods.
- Positive feedback from participants, with requests for more sessions on academic success strategies.

The guest lecture successfully met its objectives, providing students with practical and valuable insights to enhance their university exam performance.
