Report

Janata Shikshan Sanstha's Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and Satara Branch of All India Superstition Eradication Committee (Akhil Bhartiya Andhashradha Nirmulan Samiti) jointly organised Two-Day National Symposia-2022 on the subject "Scientific Temper: Development of Social Awareness" on 16th and 17th August, 2022.

On the 16th August, Inaugural Ceremony was held at 8 am. On this occasion, Dr. Gurunath Fagare, the honourable Principal of our college, delivered Welcome Address. Then, Dr. Jaywantrao Chaudhari, the honourable Secretary of our Sanstha, extended warm wishes and blessings for the successful completion of the National Symposia. During this Inaugural Ceremony, Dr. Vilas Khandait, the Coordinator of this National Symposia and President of Satara District, All India Superstitions Eradication Committee, introduced the theme of the Symposia in brief. Dr. S. P. Kambale, Co-Coordinator & IQAC Coordinator introduced the Chief Guests. Dr. A. H. Salunke, a renowned thinker and academician, delivered Inaugural Address. Dr. Salunke explained how knowledge had been updated with the evolution of man during the last two thousand years. Dr. Salunke informed how tension was aroused when new ideas, thoughts were brought. He said how, whenever innovative things were brought, the innovators were tortured. Dr. Salunke gave the list of innovators such as Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Galileo, Copernicus, Kepler who had been humiliated. Dr. Salunke gave the examples of such contributors as Charvaka, Gautam Buddha, and Kautilya who made innovative contribution to Indian philosophy. He mentioned four stages of scientific thinking. First, there is reason behind every human action. Nothing happens without reason. Second, every action has some connection to the former action. Third, Man has right to correct drawbacks of former knowledge with his scientific thinking. Fourth, Truth can reduce the sorrow of mankind. He also spoke about the limitations of science.

Hon. B. G. Kolase Patil, Former Chief Justice of Bombay High Court, presided over the Inaugural Ceremony. He informed the audience how information technology is being used as misinformation technology. He made an appeal to the participants to keep the ideals of Mahatma Phule based on truth and knowledge. He guided for the creation of future generation with free thinking. He gave multiple examples regarding this. He further stated that how we follow number of superstitions in our daily life.

In the second session of the Symposia, Dr. Animesh Chavan, an eminent psychiatrist, delivered his views on "Superstitions: Psychology and Measures". He stated that to eradicate superstitions, love works better than anger. In the same session, Dr. Ganesh Lokhande, Head, Department of Psychology, Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Satara delivered his presidential remarks on social codes and conducts which directly and indirectly lead to superstitions.

In the third session of Symposia, Dr. Mangala Narlikar informed how superstitions spread in the Indian community. She advised all the teachers to develop scientific temper among the students. She further said that we should come forward to end those traditions, customs, and values which create superstitions.

In the fourth session, Magician Shivam presented his magic show. He further stated that there is no magic as such in the world. Magic is an art, a kind of hypnotism. Through his magic hprovided entertainment and enlightened the audience.

On the 17th August, in the fifth session, various research scholars presented their papers.

In the sixth session, Hon. Bharat Patankar, President, Shramik Mukti Dal, delivered his lecture on "Indian Culture and Origin of Superstitions". He distinguished between religion and culture. He said that in culture there is less number of superstitions. Superstitions are born out of religion, ignorance, sorrow, close relations. He further stated that in order to eradicate superstitions, utilisation of proper knowledge is necessary. As it is necessary to eradicate superstitions, it is essential to destroy the origins of superstitions.

In the last session, Prof. Sham Manav, Founder, All India Superstitions Eradication Committee (Akhil Bhartiya Andhashradha Nirmulan Samiti) was felicitated by Hon. Madandada Bhosale, President, Janata Shikshan Sasntha, Wai. Prof. Sham Manav was further interviewed by Hon. Sachin Prabhune and Hon. Arun Jawale in which Sham Manav introduced his journey in the area of eradication of superstitions. He pointed that middle men (Purohits) in the religion create the superstitions. He stated that their battle is against these Purohits in the religion, not against ordinary men and women.

This National Symposia was held in 8 sessions. More than 400 students, teachers, non-teaching staff and volunteers of All India Superstitions Eradication Committee, along with social activists participated in this Symposia.

About the College

Veteran leader and freedom fighter Deshbhakt Kisan alias Abasaheb Veer, along with a renowned Sanskrit Pundit Padmavibhushan Tarkteerth Laxmanshastri Joshi, Hon'ble Prataprao Bhosale and Laxmanrao Patil established Arts & Commerce College, Wai in 1962. Inspiring by its motto, "To Light up the Paths, Indeed Have We Come", Janata Shikshan Sanstha, Wai has been rendering excellent service in education by developing the college and seven high schools for the boys and girls in and around Wai. In 1980 the college was renamed as 'Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya' to commemorate the pioneering educational work of Kisan Veer to the generations to come. The college that began only with 80 students has now the strength of more than 7000 students. Having committed to the overall development of the students, the college, along with the academic standards, provides support services and facilities to the students, such as Sports, Art and Cultural Platform, NCC, NSS etc, through which the students are taking the name of the college at national and international levels. Our college magazine, 'Krishnai' has secured first prize fourteen times in the university. The infrastructural development, including spacious playground, has been made in the well-spread area of twenty acres. The college is imparting undergraduate, postgraduate and research programmes. There are well-equipped Laboratories, Yashwantrao Chavan Open University Centre, Library & Information Centre, Women's Hostel, Boys Hostel, Indoor Sports Complex, Wrestling Complex, Canteen, Students' Cooperative Store etc. With the strong commitment to the motto, the college is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee year. The college has made major contribution for the educational, social and cultural development in Wai, Jaoli, Koregaon, Khandala and Mahabaleshwar tehsils.

About Akhil Bharatiya Andhashraddha Nirmulan Samiti

Prof. Sham Manav established Akhil Bharatiya Andhashraddha Nirmulan Samiti in Nagpur in 1982 with the cooperation of likeminded people. It is working with the aim of inculcating scientific temper and bringing social awareness in the society to create a healthy and safe social environment. It further makes an attempt to protect common people against the evil and sinister practices, human-sacrifice and other inhuman thriving on ignorance. It equally fights against those practices propagated in the name of so-called supernatural or magical powers or evil spirits commonly known as black magic by charlatans with sinister motives of exploiting the common people in the society. Dr. Vilas Khandait, Assistant Teacher of Zoology, has been rendering valuable work as the Coordinator of Satara district and Western Maharashtra unit of Akhil Bharatiya Andhashraddha Nirmulan Samiti very honestly and diligently.

About the Symposia

The Superstitions Eradication Movement is the need in the 21st century too. The objective of the Two-Day National Science Symposia-2022 on "Scientific Temper: Development of Social Awareness" is to provide an opportunity to the teachers, scholars, students in particular and participants from the society in general to inculcate social awareness about superstitions and research culture, reformation and humanity among all by developing their scientific temper according to the constitutional fundamental rights. The symposia also includes book and science exhibitions and scientific performances on the miracles by the renowned magician.

VISIT AT YASODHAN TRUST

9th March 2023

Women Empowerment cell of Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai visited Yasodhan Trust (Anath ashram) at Vele near Solashi on 9th March 2023. Our ladies faculty forty gifted thirty maxis to ladies from anathasharam and spent some time with them. We also distributed biscuits and sweets to the ashram. Visiting to Yasodhan trust was one of the best eye-opening experiences. It can give us a glimpse into the lives of the people who don't have their relatives, feared ones, mentally retired and the challenges they face. The services given by Ravi Bodake, owner of trust and his wife is very admirable. We spent some time interacting with the residents and listening to their stories. They shared their sad experiences, and it was humbling to hear them. Transportation facilities were provided by our college to us.

Visit to the anathasharam was an enriching experience. It made us appreciate the elderly and their contributions to society, and also made us aware of the challenges they face. We left the ashram with a sense of gratitude and respect for the residents and the staff who take care of them.
