Action Taken Report (2022-23)

According to the feedback reports and as per the suggestions of stakeholders, following suggestions are given by IQAC:

Sr. No.	Feedback Received From	Feedback	Action Taken
1	Student	Syllabus was challenging (69.70% students reported).	The IQAC advised to all teachers to adopt different methodologies while teaching to make teaching and learning more interesting such as increase use of ICT tools, Roll Play, field visits etc.
4	Teacher	ICT facilities should be increase in the college.	The IQAC proposed to Sanstha to enhance ICT facilities in the class rooms.
5		Syllabus is useful in the employment & Entrepreneurship (29% Teachers disagreed).	The IQAC suggested to organise placement camps.
6	Alumni	Syllabus is useful in the employment & Entrepreneurship (27% Alumni disagreed).
7	Employer	Involvement of prominent individuals from industries, other universities and research institutes in design of need-based curriculum (13% Employers disagreed).	The IQAC recommend that the faculty members should participate in the curriculum design of the parent university so as to update it and make it according to the needs of the stakeholders. Also the experts from industry and other fields should be get involved in the BOS.
