

Janata Shikshan Sanstha's
Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai

1.4.1 - Institution obtains feedback on the syllabus and its transaction at the institution from the stakeholders

Action Taken Report (ATR) on Feedback of Various Stakeholders: (2020-21)

Sr. No.	Feedback Received From	Feedback Received Report	Action Taken
1.	Students	Very few opportunities for student exchange, field visit etc. (7% students reported)	The IQAC suggested to all departments to increase the number of visits to industry, Banks etc. and motivate students to participate.
2.		Very few soft skills, life skills and employability skills (1.4% students reported)	Short term courses were introduced for development of soft skills, life skills and employability skills
3		Syllabus is not interesting (1.9% students reported)	The IQAC advised to all teachers to increase the use of ICT tools while teaching to make teaching and learning more interesting.
4.	Teachers	Usefulness of syllabus in the employment, entrepreneurship, skill development & development of research attitude among the student (3% teachers disagreed)	The IQAC recommended that the faculty members participate in the curriculum design of the parent university so as to update it and make it according to the needs of the stakeholders.
5.		Syllabus creates interest in the student (6% teachers disagreed)
6.	Alumni	Usefulness of syllabus in the employment & entrepreneurship (26 % alumni disagreed)	The IQAC suggested to introduce new short term courses which focused on development of professional skills, employment enhancement and entrepreneurship development.

E. K. Jaiswal
PRINCIPAL
KISAN VEER MAHAVIDYALAYA
Wai, Dist. Satara