The names of the seven colleges are as follows:

1. Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai
2. Bhimrao Shinde Women's College, Wai
3. Yashwantrao Chavan College, Pachwad
4. Rajendra Mahavidyalaya, Khandala
5. Shripatrao Kadam College, Shirval
6. Meenalbehn Mehta College, Panchgani
7. Giristhan College, Mahabaleshwar

Mandar Gogate, Manager, TJSB Bank, inaugurated the workshop. On this Occasion, Gogate said "Cashless Transactions by the citizens of India serve the interest of both the individual and his country. It was the need of the hour to take the decision of demonetization to curb the menace of black money in our economy. Excess of black money leads to the emergence of the parallel economy. Such a system hampers the growth of the nation. Every citizen has to undertake cashless transactions in order to make India Superpower. The European nations have already taken the step of demonetization. They, therefore, became Superpowers." The inaugural Session was chaired by Principal Dr. Chandrashekhar Yeole.

Chandrakant Pawar, Head, Western Region, ANULOM, informed the audience about the work of ANULOM. The session was attended by Ravindra Kothare, Head, Satara Region, ANULOM, Chandan Deshmukh, Head, Wai Region, ANULOM, Anil Salunkhe, Makarand Mulay, Manager, IDBI Bank, Wai, Vice Principals and Teachers.

Dr. Sunil Sawant, Area Coordinator (NSS Wai Region) and Convener of the Workshop welcomed and introduced the guests. Dr. Ramesh Vaidya, NSS Programme Officer and Coordinator of the Workshop, proposed a vote of thanks.

Mandar Gogate, Anil Salunkhe, Adv. P.L. Sonpatki, Anil Godbole, Regional Manager, IDBI imparted the training in cashless transactions to the volunteers.

Dr. Sangram Thorat anchored the Workshop. The participant teachers and volunteers were served free lunch and hospitality.
