•Report on Gender Equity Promotion Programmes•

Empowerment of women has become a subject of growing importance around the world in contemporary times. The concern is seen at different levels and circles which include governments, bureaucracy, non-governmental organizations, researchers, women's groups and all those interested in women's empowerment. The concept of women's empowerment is the outcome of several important critiques and debates generated by the women's movements throughout the world. Empowerment of women is very essential to achieve sustainable development. There can be no sustainable development without the development for women. In the words of former president of India A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, "Empowering women is a prerequisite for creating a good nation, when women are empowered, society with stability is assured. Empowerment of women essential as their thoughts and their value systems lead to development of a good family, good society and ultimately a good nation". Keeping all these in view, Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya, Wai has formed a Functional Internal Complaints Committee which was earlier known as Sexual Harassment Prevention Committee for the empowerment and development of women. The committee takes care of the needs of the women staff members as well as girl students. The committee, various departments, NSS and NCC units conduct such programmes as guest lecturers/Extension lectures, health check-ups etc. The committee also celebrates many other celebrations related to the women.
