

7.1.10 Inclusion and Situatedness

Report

The specific initiatives to address locational advantages and disadvantages have been undertaken by our college during the last five years.

2014-15

In this year visit to 'Flowers and Medicinal Plant Exhibition' has been made on 19th March 2015 to extend awareness regarding medicinal plants. Fifty five students including staff participated in it to.

2015-16

During the year, one hundred and nine students including staff participated in workshop on 'Scientific Temperament at Law against Black Magic: Experiment- Miracle & Experimental Demonstration' on 25th September 2015 to make awareness of law. Guest Lecture was arranged on 'Soil and Soil Testing' on 16th Feb 2016 to know t how to develop farming in economical way. One hundred and fifty one students including staff made their participation in it.

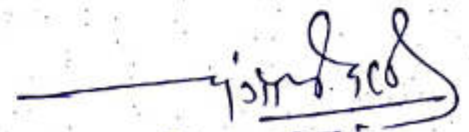

2016-17

Twenty four students including staff participated in the workshop on 'Horticulture and Gardening' on 29th March 2017 to make an awareness of agricultural business opportunity.

2017-18

During the year, fifty five students including staff made their participation in the workshop on 'Blind Faith Eradication' 8th September 2017 on to get the orientation of outdated customs. On 29th September 2017 sixty three students including staff participated in the workshop on 'Land Record and Surveying Technique' to know functioning of LRS office. In order to get the orientation of outdated customs and traditions, seventy four students including staff participated in the workshop on 'Eradication of Superstition' on 12th January 2018.

Principal
Kisan Veer Mahavidyalaya,
Wai, Dist. Satara