Report:

NSS volunteers of our college had taken the part in the relief and rescue operations on war-footing basis. About 30 volunteers were actively involved in the relief activities such as helping people for their specific problem made from flood. They worked hard to provide basic needs to the affected by collecting items of daily uses like Dry ration, clothes, soaps, sanitary napkins, medicines of regular use etc. also helping to police and government officers for making awareness about flood donation in their area for prevention.
