Report:

In the Maharashtra state 'Pandharpur' is a very famous pilgrimage center. Every Year around nine lakh pilgrims go there by walking more than 100 kilometer from their native places for worshipping god 'viththal' in the month of July, this tremendous event is called 'wari'. Foreign visitors come to see this 'wari'. This is a religious and cultural event of Maharashtra. Government of Maharashtra provided such facilities as medical hygiene, healthcare, cleanliness, police services to this 'wari'. NSS volunteers from various universities of Maharashtra participated in this event. Walking with the wari made students not just participate in socially productive work, but also gave them an experience of social work of cleanliness along with such tradition practiced for hundreds of years. 80 volunteers of our college participated in this event along with 04 teachers.
